

Weekly notice sheet for the week beginning 18th March 2018
The Fifth Sunday of Lent

A very warm welcome to our worship today.

If you are a visitor to the church please introduce yourself to the Vicar, to the Churchwarden or to one of the Welcomers after the service. Crèche facilities are available in the tower room at the back of the church. An induction loop is fitted for people with hearing aids – please turn to the T-position. All are welcome to come forward to receive communion or a blessing. Communion can be administered to someone in their seat – please ask. May God bless us as we gather together as God’s people.

The Jigsaw Coffee Morning raised £598.75 of which £331.50 was Gift Aided. Thank you to everyone who supported this event.

The Electoral Roll

Is displayed in church so that it can be revised where necessary. The period of revision will end on Sunday 1st April 2018 and the Roll will be closed until after the Annual Meeting on Sunday 22nd April 2018. If you have any questions or you need to correct the entry please contact the Electoral Roll Office, Mrs. Christine Anderton on 01535 633596

Fair Trade

There is a Traidcraft stall in Church today. With our effort we can help workers from the poorest areas of the world support their families and protect their future. There are Easter eggs, Cards and other goodies on show, as well as the usual things. Please have a look and see how you might help. I also have catalogues with lots of lovely, fairly-traded things. We can change the world: one bite at a time!

Church Treasurer

After 8 years of loyal service Marie Stinson has decided to stand down as treasurer .We are extremely grateful for all the work Marie has undertaken, especially in difficult personal circumstances. This does mean we are now seeking new treasurer to take over from Marie. If you are interested in finding out more, please speak to Sandie or Lesley.

Maintenance & Cleaning Days

We will be cleaning the church and carrying out various maintenance tasks outside in preparation for Easter. If you are available to help on the 22nd, 23rd or the 24th March please sign the sheet on the desk at the back of the church.

Easter Lilies

If you would like to contribute to the cost of the Easter Lilies in memory of a “Loved” one, there is a basket at the back of the church for your contribution.

Waterways Chaplain Could you be a Waterway’s Chaplain? Volunteers are from local churches including both lay people and ordained ministers, providing a listening and supporting ministry, sharing good and bad times to those who benefit and use the river and canal networks. Training and support is provided If you would like more information contact

Debbie Nouwen(Deputy Senior National Waterways Chaplain)

Prayers for People in need

To have someone prayed for by name in our parish prayers please contact June Whitaker (655320) or malcolm.whitaker@talktalk.net Names will be included weekly for 8 weeks or monthly for 4 months. They will then be removed unless a further period of prayer is requested.

There are some pictures which have been donated by the family of David Baxter. Some of these were painted by the late Cyril Doult. If you are interested in purchasing any of these paintings, please see June Whitaker. Proceeds will go towards Church Funds.

Readings for the Fourth Sunday of Lent Sunday 18th March 2018

First Reading

First Reading

Jeremiah 31.31-34

The days are surely coming, says the LORD, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah. It will not be like the covenant that I made with their ancestors when I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt—a covenant that they broke, though I was their husband, says the LORD. But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the LORD: I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. No longer shall they teach one another, or say to each other, ‘Know the LORD’, for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest, says the LORD; for I will forgive their iniquity, and remember their sin no more.

Second Reading

Hebrews 5.5-10

Christ did not glorify himself in becoming a high priest, but was appointed by the one who said to him,

‘You are my Son,
today I have begotten you’;
as he says also in another place,
‘You are a priest for ever,
according to the order of Melchizedek.’

In the days of his flesh, Jesus offered up prayers and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to the one who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverent submission. Although he was a Son, he learned obedience through what he suffered; and having been made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him, having been designated by God a high priest according to the order of Melchizedek.

Gospel

John 12.20-33

Among those who went up to worship at the festival were some Greeks. They came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee, and said to him, ‘Sir, we wish to see Jesus.’ Philip went and told Andrew; then Andrew and Philip went and told Jesus. Jesus answered them, ‘The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. Very truly, I tell you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains just a single grain; but if it dies, it bears much fruit. Those who love their life lose it, and those who hate their life in this world will keep it for eternal life. Whoever serves me must follow me, and where I am, there will my servant be also. Whoever serves me, the Father will honour.

‘Now my soul is troubled. And what should I say – “Father, save me from this hour”? No, it is for this reason that I have come to this hour. Father, glorify your name.’ Then a voice came from heaven, ‘I have glorified it, and I will glorify it again.’ The crowd standing there heard it and said that it was thunder. Others said, ‘An angel has spoken to him.’ Jesus answered, ‘This voice has come for your sake, not for mine. Now is the judgement of this world; now the ruler of this world will be driven out. And I, when I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all people to myself.’ He said this to indicate the kind of death he was to die.
