APCM

Nomination forms for the various vacancies are now in church. Please will you think carefully and prayerfully whether God is asking you to serve His church in this way? This next year is really important in the life of St. Andrew's as we develop our relationship with the congregation at Bradley and Cononley. This is the time to elect two Churchwarden's, a deanery Synod representative, two representatives to the Cross Hills and District Fellowship of Churches and several PCC members. Ideally, we need six people to serve on the PCC: three for three years, two for two years and one more for a year. We also need to appoint a Treasurer; there is a training course for potential Treasurers on April 21st. Please speak to the Churchwardens if you have any questions about any of these vacancies – and do pray about what you can do to serve God in this way.

Fair Trade

There is a Traidcraft stall in the Parish Rooms today.. There are Easter eggs, other goodies on show, as well as the usual things. Please have a look and see how you might help. I also have catalogues with lots of lovely, fairly-traded things. We can change the world: one bite at a time!

Church Treasurer

After 8 years of loyal service Marie Stinson has decided to stand down as treasurer .We are extremely grateful for all the work Marie has undertaken, especially in difficult personal circumstances. This does mean we are now seeking new treasurer to take over from Marie. If you are interested in finding out more, please speak to Sandie or Lesley.

Waterways Chaplain

Could you be a Waterway's Chaplain? Volunteers are from local churches including both lay people and ordained ministers, providing a listening and supporting ministry, sharing good and bad times to those who benefit and use the river and canal networks. Training and support is provided If you would like more information contact

Debbie Nouwen(Deputy Senior National Waterways Chaplain)

READINGS

Acts 10.34-43

Peter began to speak to those assembled in the house of Cornelius. 'I truly understand that God shows no partiality, but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him. You know the message he sent to the people of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ – he is Lord of all. That message spread throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John announced: how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power; how he went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses to all that he did both in Judea and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree; but God raised him on the third day and allowed him to appear, not to all the people but to us who were chosen by God as witnesses, and who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one ordained by God as judge of the living and the dead. All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name.'

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 15.1-11

I would remind you, brothers and sisters, of the good news that I proclaimed to you, which you in turn received, in which also you stand, through which also you are being saved, if you hold firmly to the message that I proclaimed to you – unless you have come to believe in vain.

For I handed on to you as of first importance what I in turn had received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the scriptures, and that he was buried, and that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers and sisters at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have died. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me. For I am the least of the apostles, unfit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace towards me has not been in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them – though it was not I, but the grace of God that is with me. Whether then it was I or they, so we proclaim and so you have come to believe.

Gospel

Mark 16.1-8

When the sabbath was over, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought spices, so that they might go and anoint him. And very early on the first day of the week, when the sun had risen, they went to the tomb. They had been saying to one another, 'Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance to the tomb?' When they looked up, they saw that the stone, which was very large, had already been rolled back. As they entered the tomb, they saw a young man, dressed in a white robe, sitting on the right side; and they were alarmed. But he said to them, 'Do not be alarmed; you are looking for Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He has been raised; he is not here. Look, there is the place they laid him. But go, tell his disciples and Peter that he is going ahead of you to Galilee; there you will see him, just as he told you.' So they went out and fled from the tomb, for terror and amazement had seized them; and they said nothing to anyone, for t

Lord Jesus Christ, your first followers include Andrew, John and your mother Mary.
May we, like them, walk in your way as faithful disciples.
Fill us with your Holy Spirit, that we may grow closer to each other and to you.
Guide us by your Holy Spirit, that we may follow where you are leading.
Transform us by your Holy Spirit, that we may draw others into the life of your Kingdom
May we be your blessing to our parishes of Kildwick, Cononley with Bradley.
In your name, for your sake, and or the sake of your kingdom on earth as in heaven.

Amen.
