READINGS

First Reading 2 Corinthians 4.13-5.1

But just as we have the same spirit of faith that is in accordance with scripture—‘I believed, and so I spoke’—we also believe, and so we speak, because we know that the one who raised the Lord Jesus will raise us also with Jesus, and will bring us with you into his presence. Yes, everything is for your sake, so that grace, as it extends to more and more people, may increase thanksgiving, to the glory of God.

Living by Faith

So we do not lose heart. Even though our outer nature is wasting away, our inner nature is being renewed day by day. For this slight momentary affliction is preparing us for an eternal weight of glory beyond all measure, because we look not at what can be seen but at what cannot be seen; for what can be seen is temporary, but what cannot be seen is eternal.

For we know that if the earthly tent we live in is destroyed, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

Gospel

Mark 3. 20-end

and the crowd came together again, so that they could not even eat. When his family heard it, they went without first tying up the strong man; then indeed the house can be plundered.

‘Truly I tell you, people will be forgiven for their sins and whatever blasphemies they utter; but whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit can never have forgiveness, but is guilty of an eternal sin’— for out to restrain him, for people were saying, ‘He has gone out of his mind.’ And the scribes who came down from Jerusalem said, ‘He has Beelzebul, and by the ruler of the demons he casts out demons.’ And he called them to him, and spoke to them in parables, ‘How can Satan cast out Satan? If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. And if a house is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand. And if Satan has risen up against himself and is divided, he cannot stand, but his end has come. But no one can enter a strong man’s house and plunder his property they had said, ‘He has an unclean spirit.’

The True Kindred of Jesus Then his mother and his brothers came; and standing outside, they sent to him and called him. A crowd was sitting around him; and they said to him, ‘Your mother and your brothers and sisters are outside, asking for you.’ And he replied, ‘Who are my mother and my brothers?’ And looking at those who sat around him, he said, ‘Here are my mother and my brothers! Whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother.’

KCB Summer School - Reading the Bible

The Bible is a central resource for our faith as Christians. But reading the Bible isn't always easy, for all sorts of reasons. For one thing, we generally regard it as one book, but in fact it's made up of a whole host of individual books. For another, it's very old - written across the best part of a thousand years, with the most recent parts of it themselves written some two thousand years ago. Most of us don't regularly read ancient texts; when we do, we recognize that we might find it difficult to enter the world within which they were written. Yet another factor is that it was written in a variety of languages, so most readers today come to it in translation, which brings its own challenges.

The aim of this Summer School is to give an overview of the Bible as a text - the kinds of writings it contains and the contexts in which they were written. We can become more informed readers, understanding more about the literary style and nature of Biblical writings, looking afresh at what it says and how it says it, so that we can listen more attentively to what God is saying through it to us today.

The Summer School will take place in Kildwick Parish Rooms on the following dates, between 7.30pm and 9pm:

Wednesday 13th, 20th, 27th June, 4th, 11th and 18th July.

Please bring a Bible along with you!

It would be helpful to have an idea of numbers, so if you would like to come, can you please let me know (phone and e-mail contacts are in the magazine). There will also be sign-up sheets in church. I hope that you will find the sessions interesting and informative, and that perhaps you will find yourself looking at this familiar, much-loved (but not always easy to understand) book with new eyes.
