KCB NEWS

I'ts Your Place. So Speak up and tell us what your think..

As part of the community, you will know better than anyone what affects your day-to-day life in Bradford and District. You know what's really important to you in terms of your family, friends, your lifestyle and your neighbourhood. As a community we have put ourselves forward and asked Government to support us as one of five areas across Britain to test new and different ways of doing things that will make our community closer and stronger with more opportunity for everyone. We are holding three "Tell Us What You Think" days across the district run by expert researchers.

10.00-19.00 City Park, Bradford, 17th July

10.00-19.00 Airedale Shopping Centre Keighley 23rd July

10.00-19.00 Shipley Library 26th July

This is a chance to help our area and, at the same time, share valuable learning with the rest of the country. What can you expect? The events will be informal, welcoming and fun, with refreshments and a chance to really get involved in discussions and debates. Everyone will be welcome to come along and help us test ideas and tell us 'what a good future would mean for them'. There will be plenty of opportunity to talk about what matters to you, get involved in workshops, complete surveys and talk in groups. The idea is to create an environment where the widest possible range of people are able to contribute their views.

Employment opportunities How do we make it easier for people to have equal access and opportunities at work?

English language and life How can we help people to learn about and adapt to life in Britain.

Hope for the future How do we make people believe that they have a future in the district? How do we encourage them to stay in Bradford and District to build their lives and those of their families?

Creating strong communities How important is it for us to build good relations between older and younger people across the district?

Linking up schools How important is it that our children learn and grow up alongside those from different backgrounds?

We want to make sure we get the views of as many different sections of society as possible. We will be reaching out to a variety of people and will hold private mixed group sessions, but we also feel it is important to hold private sessions with groups who might find it easier to talk among their peers, so they feel confident contributing openly and honestly. About - 'Tell us what you think workshops

These will be small groups in a private room with a facilitator. They will each last 1 hour. They will be informal with the focus being on encouraging contributions. There are two types:

1. Audience specific – where we are bringing a particular audience together that we think will feel more comfortable with their peers. They will explore a range of the issues on the attached list that are most relevant to them/they feel most strongly about.
2. Subject specific – where we will bring a mixed audience together to discuss one main subject and touch on some of the others too.

READINGS

First Reading Ephesians 1.3-1

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places, just as he chose us in Christ before the foundation of the world to be holy and blameless before him in love. He destined us for adoption as his children through Jesus Christ, according to the good pleasure of his will, to the praise of his glorious grace that he freely bestowed on us in the Beloved. In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace that he lavished on us. With all wisdom and insight he has made known to us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure that he set forth in Christ, as a plan for the fullness of time, to gather up all things in him, things in heaven and things on earth. In Christ we have also obtained an inheritance, having been destined according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to his counsel and will, so that we, who were the first to set our hope on Christ, might live for the praise of his glory. In him you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and had believed in him, were marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit; this is the pledge of our inheritance towards redemption as God's own people, to the praise of his

☐ GOSPEL READING MARK 6. 14-29

King Herod heard of it, for Jesus' name had become known. Some were saying, 'John the baptizer has been raised from the dead; and for this reason these powers are at work in him.' But others said, 'It is Elijah.' And others said, 'It is a prophet, like one of the prophets of old.' But when Herod heard of it, he said, 'John, whom I beheaded, has been raised.'

For Herod himself had sent men who arrested John, bound him, and put him in prison on account of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife, because Herod had married her. For John had been telling Herod, 'It is not lawful for you to have your brother's wife.' And Herodias had a grudge against him, and wanted to kill him. But she could not, for Herod feared John, knowing that he was a righteous and holy man, and he protected him. When he heard him, he was greatly perplexed; and yet he liked to listen to him. But an opportunity came when Herod on his birthday gave a banquet for his courtiers and officers and for the leaders of Galilee. When his daughter Herodias came in and danced, she pleased Herod and his guests; and the king said to the girl, 'Ask me for whatever you wish, and I will give it.' And he solemnly swore to her, 'Whatever you ask me, I will give you, even half of my kingdom.' She went out and said to her mother, 'What should I ask for?' She replied, 'The head of John the baptizer.' Immediately she rushed back to the king and requested, 'I want you to give me at once the head of John the Baptist on a platter.' The king was deeply grieved; yet out of regard for his oaths and for the guests, he did not want to refuse her. Immediately the king sent a soldier of the guard with orders to bring John's head. He went and beheaded him in the prison, brought his head on a platter, and gave it to the girl. Then the girl gave it to her mother. When his disciples heard about it, they came and took his body, and laid it in a tomb.
