A reminder about health and safety at St. John's

Please let Janet Clifford know if you discover a fault on any church equipment. Also, please let Janet know if anyone has an accident or you discover a safety hazard. Don't forget if you go to church on your own to take your mobile phone with you and where possible, let someone know you are going.

Our joint service on 29th July is at St John's starting at 10:00am

KCB NEWS

I am inviting people to stay behind for a few minutes after the following 11.00 a.m. services, to give their thoughts and feedback on their experience of the new service pattern.

5th August – St. Andrew's Kildwick

12th August – St. John's Cononley

19th August – St. Mary's Bradley

I will also have forms available at each session (and at each church for two or three weeks afterwards) so that people can take them away and have the opportunity to provide more detailed feedback, including people who are away on the above dates.

Julie Bacon. Interim priest-in-charge.

READINGS

First Reading

For the love of Christ urges us on, because we are convinced that one has died for all; therefore all have died. And he died for all, so that those who live might live no longer for themselves, but for him who died and was raised for them.

From now on, therefore, we regard no one from a human point of view; even though we once knew Christ from a human point of view, we know him no longer in that way. So if anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation: everything old has passed away; see, everything has become new!

GOSPEL READING

Early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved, and said to them, 'They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him.'

But Mary stood weeping outside the tomb. As she wept, she bent over to look into the tomb; and she saw two angels in white, sitting where the body of Jesus had been lying, one at the head and the other at the feet. They said to her, 'Woman, why are you weeping?' She said to them, 'They have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid him.' When she had said this, she turned round and saw Jesus standing there, but she did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to her, 'Woman, why are you weeping? For whom are you looking?' Supposing him to be the gardener, she said to him, 'Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away.' Jesus said to her, 'Mary!' She turned and said to him in Hebrew, 'Rabbouni!' (which means Teacher). Jesus said to her, 'Do not hold on to me, because I have not yet ascended to the Father. But go to my brothers and say to them, "I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God." Mary Magdalene went and announced to the disciples, 'I have seen the Lord'; and she told them that he had said these things to her.
