There will also be other non-food things on sale at reduced prices, so come with your purses! The new catalogues are due in September, so I'll be running a full scale stall on September 23rd. Remember, not only do we make a small profit for Kildwick, but Fair Trade also makes a huge difference to Third World producers. Jill Wright.

Recycling for Good Causes - Can I remind you that at the back of church, you'll find a sack into which you can deposit all manner of items which can be recycled? Recycling is important as we all know: it's one way which we can lessen our use of resources and help to protect the environment – and we are paid for it! Ok, it's not a huge amount of money, but small amounts help! So what can we put in? Any unwanted jewellery: gold, silver or costume jewellery and damaged items are fine. (For example, I have a box of single earrings which I will now get rid of! The charity will also take any currency (notes or coins) which you have lurking in a drawer. Stamps are welcome, as are albums, First Day covers and presentation packs and postcards. Perhaps the most useful category is mobile phones, cameras and gadgets (including damaged or broken goods!) Video cameras, old film cameras, SLRs and lenses, sat navs, game consoles, games and other accessories, Ipods, MP3 players, laptops and tablet computers. Please though: NO ink or toner cartridges.

Readings - James 1. 17-end

Every generous act of giving, with every perfect gift, is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no variation or shadow due to change. In fulfilment of his own purpose he gave us birth by the word of truth, so that we would become a kind of first fruits of his creatures.

You must understand this, my beloved: let everyone be quick to listen, slow to speak, slow to anger; for your anger does not produce God's righteousness. Therefore rid yourselves of all sordidness and rank growth of wickedness, and welcome with meekness the implanted word that has the power to save your souls.

But be doers of the word, and not merely hearers who deceive themselves. For if any are hearers of the word and not doers, they are like those who look at themselves in a mirror; for they look at themselves and, on going away, immediately forget what they were like. But those who look into the perfect law, the law of liberty, and persevere, being not hearers who forget but doers who act—they will be blessed in their doing.

If any think they are religious, and do not bridle their tongues but deceive their hearts, their religion is worthless. Religion that is pure and undefiled before God, the Father, is this: to care for orphans and widows in their distress, and to keep oneself unstained by the world.

GOSPEL READING – Mark 7. 1-8,14-15,21-23

Now when the Pharisees and some of the scribes who had come from Jerusalem gathered around him, they noticed that some of his disciples were eating with defiled hands, that is, without washing them. (For the Pharisees, and all the Jews, do not eat unless they thoroughly wash their hands, thus observing the tradition of the elders; and they do not eat anything from the market unless they wash it; and there are also many other traditions that they observe, the washing of cups, pots, and bronze kettles.) So the Pharisees and the scribes asked him, ‘Why do your disciples not live according to the tradition of the elders, but eat with defiled hands?’ He said to them, ‘Isaiah prophesied rightly about you hypocrites, as it is written, “This people honours me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me; in vain do they worship me, teaching human precepts as doctrines.” You abandon the commandment of God and hold to human tradition.’

Then he called the crowd again and said to them, ‘Listen to me, all of you, and understand: there is nothing outside a person that by going in can defile, but the things that come out are what defile.’ For it is from within, from the human heart, that evil intentions come: fornication, theft, murder, adultery, avarice, wickedness, deceit, licentiousness, envy, slander, pride, folly. All these evil things come from within, and they defile a person.’
