

Weekly notice sheet for the week beginning Sunday 16th September
TRINITY 16

A very warm welcome to our worship today. Do please introduce yourself!

A hearing aid loop is fitted at St Andrew's, St Mary's & St. John's.

All are welcome to come forward to receive Communion or a blessing.

Communion can be administered to someone in their seat – please ask.

May God bless us as we gather together as God's people.

	Readings
9.30 a.m. St. John's Cononley	James 3.1-12
11.00 a.m. St. Mary's Bradley	Mark 8. 27-end

Our Interim Priest in Charge is Revd Julie Bacon

Contact her on 01274 405170 or at revjulesbacon@gmail.com. What good is it, my brothers and sisters, if you say you have faith but do not have works? Can faith save you? If a brother or sister is naked and lacks daily food, and one of you says to them, 'Go in peace; keep warm and eat your fill', and yet you do not supply their bodily needs, what is the good of that? So faith by itself, if it has no works, is dead com

ST. JOHN'S CONONLEY

Date for your diary: St John's will be holding a coffee morning in the institute on Saturday 3rd November. If you can help in any way or are able to do some baking please speak to Jean Field.

St John's Church steps are going to need clearing of leaves on a regular basis over the autumn/winter period. If you could take a turn to help with this, please put your name on the list at the back of church. Thank you. Janet C

Cononley UCC is still without a secretary to deal with correspondence (we have a Minute Secretary) if you could help please speak to Julie or Janet W. Also we could do with some more help with the refreshments on a Sunday morning if you think you could help with this please speak to Janet C.

First Reading – James 3. 1-12

Not many of you should become teachers, my brothers and sisters, for you know that we who teach will be judged with greater strictness. For all of us make many mistakes. Anyone who makes no mistakes in speaking is perfect, able to keep the whole body in check with a bridle. If we put bits into the mouths of horses to make them obey us, we guide their whole bodies. Or look at ships: though they are so large that it takes strong winds to drive them, yet they are guided by a very small rudder wherever the will of the pilot directs. So also the tongue is a small member, yet it boasts of great exploits.

How great a forest is set ablaze by a small fire! And the tongue is a fire. The tongue is placed among our members as a world of iniquity; it stains the whole body, sets on fire the cycle of nature, and is itself set on fire by hell. For every species of beast and bird, of reptile and sea creature, can be tamed and has been tamed by the human species, but no one can tame the tongue—a restless evil, full of deadly poison. With it we bless the Lord and Father, and with it we curse those who are made in the likeness of God. From the same mouth come blessing and cursing. My brothers and sisters, this ought not to be so. Does a spring pour forth from the same opening both fresh and brackish water? Can a fig tree, my brothers and sisters, yield olives, or a grapevine figs? No more can salt water yield fresh.

GOSPEL READING – Mark 7. 24-end

Jesus went on with his disciples to the villages of Caesarea Philippi; and on the way he asked his disciples, ‘Who do people say that I am?’ And they answered him, ‘John the Baptist; and others, Elijah; and still others, one of the prophets.’ He asked them, ‘But who do you say that I am?’ Peter answered him, ‘You are the Messiah.’ And he sternly ordered them not to tell anyone about him.

Then he began to teach them that the Son of Man must undergo great suffering, and be rejected by the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again. He said all this quite openly. And Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him. But turning and looking at his disciples, he rebuked Peter and said, ‘Get behind me, Satan! For you are setting your mind not on divine things but on human things.’

He called the crowd with his disciples, and said to them, ‘If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me. For those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake, and for the sake of the gospel, will save it. For what will it profit them to gain the whole world and forfeit their life? Indeed, what can they give in return for their life? Those who are ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, of

for the sake of the gospel, will save it. For what will it profit them to gain the whole world and forfeit their life? Indeed, what can they give in return for their life? Those who are ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, of them the Son of Man will also be ashamed when he comes in the glory of his Father with the holy angels.'
