Churchyard tidy up October Thursday 25th- Saturday 27th

It's that time of year again when we need to give the churchyard and gardens a good tidy up. The area around the war memorial especially needs to be tidied before Remembrance Sunday. If you can join us on any (or all!) of those days please let Lesley or Sandie know.

Patronal Festival Eucharist. St Andrew's Church, Friday 30th November 7.30pm followed by mulled wine.

St. Andrew's Fair This year we are having the Fair St Andrew's in Kildwick and Farnhill Institute. This means we will actually be WARM!!!!

Please book the date in your diaries now

Saturday 1st December 11am-1.30pm. Morning coffee and soup and roll lunch will be served. Look out for more details in November's magazine.

ST. JOHN'S CONONLEY

Date for your Diary – St. John's will be holding a coffee morning in the institute on Saturday 3rd November. If you can help in any way or are able to do some baking, please speak to Jean Field.

KCB NEWS

P.C.C. AWAY DAY 6TH October – Sutton Baptist Church. the focus of the day is ' The future shape of ministry in Kildwick and Cononley with Bradley'. With the appointment of one stipendiary priest instead of 2 to serve 2 parishes/3 churches, change for all is unavoidable. The church councils have a vital role to play in shaping that change. Your voice is important

READINGS

First Reading – Ephesians 6. 10-20

Finally, be strong in the Lord and in the strength of his power. Put on the whole armour of God, so that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. For our struggle is not against enemies of blood and flesh, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the cosmic powers of this present darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places. Therefore take up the whole armour of God, so that you may be able to withstand on that evil day, and having done everything, to stand firm. Stand therefore, and fasten the belt of truth around your waist, and put on the breastplate of righteousness. As shoes for your feet put on whatever will make you ready to proclaim the gospel of peace. With all of these, take the shield of faith, with which you will be able to quench all the flaming arrows of the evil one. Take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God.

Pray in the Spirit at all times in every prayer and supplication. To that end keep alert and always persevere in supplication for all the saints. Pray also for me, so that when I speak, a message may be given to me to make known with boldness the mystery of the gospel, for which I am an ambassador in chains. Pray that I may declare it boldly, as I must speak.

Gospel Reading John 6. 59-69

He said these things while he was teaching in the synagogue at Capernaum.

When many of his disciples heard it, they said, 'This teaching is difficult; who can accept it?' But Jesus, being aware that his disciples were complaining about it, said to them, 'Does this offend you? Then what if you were to see the Son of Man ascending to where he was before? It is the spirit that gives life; the flesh is useless. The words that I have spoken to you are spirit and life. But among you there are some who do not believe.' For Jesus knew from the first who were the ones that did not believe, and who was the one that would betray him. And he said, 'For this reason I have told you that no one can come to me unless it is granted by the Father.'

Because of this many of his disciples turned back and no longer went about with him. So Jesus asked the twelve, 'Do you also wish to go away?' Simon Peter answered him, 'Lord, to whom can we go? You have the words of eternal life. We have come to believe and know that you are the Holy One of God.'
