Rita Harrison is grateful to all those who helped her when she fell in the church grounds last Sunday.

Gluten Free Communion Wafers are now available. Please speak to one of the Welcomers if you require one of these.

Harvest – Thank you to everyone who supported our Harvest Services for the Indonesian earthquake and tsunami appeal via Christian Aid. The collection from Kildwick School Harvest was £77.73 and the Harvest Auction following the service on Sunday raised £164.38. Thank you to those who helped in decorating the church prior to the service.

Traidcraft Please leave any catalogues or orders at the back of church for Jill to collect. There will be a Tradecraft stall on the 28th October when orders will be taken. Jill will send a final order in November when she will need to know numbers for Advent calendars.

Churchyard tidy up October Thursday 25th- Saturday 27th

It's that time of year again when we need to give the churchyard and gardens a good tidy up. The area around the war memorial especially needs to be tidied before Remembrance Sunday. If you can join us on any (or all!) of those days please let Lesley or Sandie know.

St Andrew's patronal festival service of holy communion - Friday 30th November

6.30pm - Everyone is warmly invited to this special service. We are delighted to welcome the Right Reverend Toby Howarth, Bishop of Bradford, who will preach and preside. Mulled Wine & Mince Pies will be served after the service.

St. Andrew's Fair This year we are having St Andrew's Fair in Kildwick and Farnhill Institute. This means we will actually be WARM!!!!

Please book the date in your diaries now

Saturday 1st December 11am-1.30pm. Morning coffee and soup and roll lunch will be served. Look out for more details in November's magazine.

Tea & Scones – Thank you to everyone who hosted tea & scones during the Summer months in the Parish Rooms. We have raised £844.85p towards church funds.

ST. JOHN'S CONONLEY

Date for your Diary – St. John's will be holding a coffee morning in the institute on Saturday 3rd November. If you can help in any way or are able to do some baking, please speak to Jean Field.

READINGS

First Reading – Hebrews 4. 12-end

Indeed, the word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing until it divides soul from spirit, joints from marrow; it is able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart. And before him no creature is hidden, but all are naked and laid bare to the eyes of the one to whom we must render an account.

Since, then, we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast to our confession. For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but we have one who in every respect has been tested as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore approach the throne of grace with boldness, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

Gospel Reading – Mark 10. 17-31

As he was setting out on a journey, a man ran up and knelt before him, and asked him, ‘Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?’ Jesus said to him, ‘Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. You know the commandments: “You shall not murder; You shall not commit adultery; You shall not steal; You shall not bear false witness; You shall not defraud; Honour your father and mother.” ’ He said to him, ‘Teacher, I have kept all these since my youth.’ Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said, ‘You lack one thing; go, sell what you own, and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me.’ When he heard this, he was shocked and went away grieving, for he had many possessions.

Then Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, ‘How hard it will be for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!’ And the disciples were perplexed at these words. But Jesus said to them again, ‘Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of God.’ They were greatly astounded and said to one another, ‘Then who can be saved?’ Jesus looked at them and said, ‘For mortals it is impossible, but not for God; for God all things are possible.’

Peter began to say to him, ‘Look, we have left everything and followed you.’ Jesus said, ‘Truly I tell you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or fields, for my sake and for the sake of the good news, who will not receive a hundredfold now in this age—houses, brothers and sisters, mothers and children, and fields, with persecutions—and in the age to come eternal life. But many who are first will be last, and the last will be first.’
