Jigsaw Christmas Bags – Toothbrushes, toothpaste, combs, hairbrushes, soap, small toys, crayons are needed to fill these bags which will be given to the children at Christmas. Items are required by the end of July so they can be despatched to Tim Lee in August.

KCB Summer School - 'Witness: meeting Jesus afresh in Luke's gospel'

This year's KCB Summer School will start on Wednesday 19th June and run for 5 Wednesdays, finishing on 17th July. Sessions will run from 7.30pm to 9pm. An opportunity to immerse ourselves in what it might have been like to encounter Jesus during his earthly ministry, and refresh our understanding of the good news. Each week we will listen to a 45-minute radio play by Nick Warburton based on Luke's gospel, meeting Jesus through the eye-witness accounts of his disciples and others who met him. We will then have time to reflect together on what we have heard, and any new perspectives gained. Please let Julie know if you plan to come - or simply turn up!

C.D.FC. PRAISE IN THE PARK

Sunday 7th July - Please see poster at the back of the church together with voting forms for people to complete with their favourite hymns and worship songs. The closing date for voting is Sunday 16th June.

Sunday 14th July 2 p.m. – 4 p.m. St. Andrew's Church Kildwick

At Messy Church There will be lots of fun activities for parents and children to do together. Then there will time to worship God before everybody shares food. Offers of help most welcome.

Readings – Galatians 5. 1,13-25

For freedom Christ has set us free. Stand firm, therefore, and do not submit again to a yoke of slavery.

For you were called to freedom, brothers and sisters; only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for self-indulgence, but through love become slaves to one another. For the whole law is summed up in a single commandment, 'You shall love your neighbour as yourself.' If, however, you bite and devour one another, take care that you are not consumed by one another.

The Works of the Flesh

Live by the Spirit, I say, and do not gratify the desires of the flesh. For what the flesh desires is opposed to the Spirit, and what the Spirit desires is opposed to the flesh; for these are opposed to each other, to prevent you from doing what you want. But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not subject to the law. Now the works of the flesh are obvious: fornication, impurity, licentiousness, idolatry, sorcery, enmities, strife, jealousy, anger, quarrels, dissensions, factions, envy, drunkenness, carousing, and things like these. I am warning you, as I warned you before: those who do such things will not inherit the kingdom of God.

The Fruit of the Spirit

By contrast, the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. There is no law against such things. And those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. If we live by the Spirit, let us also be guided by the Spirit.

Gospel Reading – Luke 9. 51-end

A Samaritan Village Refuses to Receive Jesus

When the days drew near for him to be taken up, he set his face to go to Jerusalem. And he sent messengers ahead of him. On their way they entered a village of the Samaritans to make ready for him; but they did not receive him, because his face was set towards Jerusalem. When his disciples James and John saw it, they said, ‘Lord, do you want us to command fire to come down from heaven and consume them?’ But he turned and rebuked them. Then they went on to another village.

Would-Be Followers of Jesus

As they were going along the road, someone said to him, ‘I will follow you wherever you go.’ And Jesus said to him, ‘Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head.’ To another he said, ‘Follow me.’ But he said, ‘Lord, first let me go and bury my father.’ But Jesus said to him, ‘Let the dead bury their own dead; but as for you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God.’ Another said, ‘I will follow you, Lord; but let me first say farewell to those at my home.’ Jesus said to him, ‘No one who puts a hand to the plough and looks back is fit for the kingdom of God.’
