St Andrew's 2018 accounts - an update

This week we have received the draft accounts from the Diocesan Finance Department. As a result of holidays and pre-existing commitments, the PCC will meet to approve the accounts after church on Sunday 4th August. Once this has been done, we will be able to make them available to everyone from Sunday 11th August. There will be a short Extraordinary Church Meeting after the service on Sunday 25th August for the receipt of the accounts.

Julie

Summer Fair – A huge thank you for all the work you put into the Summer fair, I think you will all agree it was a fantastic event – great Photo's on our Facebook Page. The amount raised is approximately £2,400.

Tea and Scones Will be served in the Parish Rooms each Sunday until September from 2.30 pm – 4.30 pm. If you are able to help by hosting an afternoon, baking scones or church sitting so that our ancient church can be open for visitors, please sign the list at the back of the church.

Jigsaw Christmas Bags – Toothbrushes, toothpaste, combs, hairbrushes, soap, small toys, crayons are needed to fill these bags which will be given to the children at Christmas. Items are required by the end of July so they can be despatched to Tim Lee in August.

Knotthenot Stitching Group – Will not be meeting again until September due to holidays.

Chuffs – Will finish on Tuesday 16th July for the summer holidays and will begin again in September.

TODAY 2 p.m. – 4 p.m. St. Andrew's Church Kildwick

At Messy Church There will be lots of fun activities for parents and children to do together. Then there will be a short time to worship God before everybody shares food. Offers of help most welcome please let Lesley know if you are available to help.

St Andrew's Church Building Working Group - as you know, this group has been set up to consider how to secure a sustainable future for the church building and is being co-ordinated by Sue Booth, the diocesan Buildings for Mission officer. A number of you are already involved - many thanks. In order to accommodate Sue's diary and other commitments, regular meetings over the summer have been arranged. If you would like to get involved with this group and attend any of these meetings, please let Julie know in the first instance. Meetings will be on Thursdays at 1.30pm in the parish rooms on the following dates: 11th and 25th July, 8th and 22nd August, 5th and 19th September. Sue will be visiting us to give us an update at our service on Sunday 4th August. The meeting on 8th August will be a visit to Bolton Priory at 2pm, when the Rector, the Revd. Nicholas Mercer, will show us round their redevelopment works - there'll be more about this in the July/August edition of 'The Pinnacle'.

First Reading – Colossians 1. 1-14

Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, To the saints and faithful brothers and sisters in Christ in Colossae:

Grace to you and peace from God our Father.

In our prayers for you we always thank God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, for we have heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and of the love that you have for all the saints, because of the hope laid up for you in heaven. You have heard of this hope before in the word of the truth, the gospel that has come to you. Just as it is bearing fruit and growing in the whole world, so it has been bearing fruit among yourselves from the day you heard it and truly comprehended the grace of God. This you learned from Epaphras, our beloved fellow-servant. He is a faithful minister of Christ on your behalf, and he has made known to us your love in the Spirit.

For this reason, since the day we heard it, we have not ceased praying for you and asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of God's will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, so that you may lead lives worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him, as you bear fruit in every good work and as you grow in the knowledge of God.

May you be made strong with all the strength that comes from his glorious power, and may you be prepared to endure everything with patience, while joyfully giving thanks to the Father, who has enabled you to share in the inheritance of the saints in the light. He has rescued us from the power of darkness and transferred us into the kingdom of his beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

Gospel Reading – Luke 10. 25-37

The Parable of the Good Samaritan

Just then a lawyer stood up to test Jesus. ‘Teacher,’ he said, ‘what must I do to inherit eternal life?’ He said to him, ‘What is written in the law? What do you read there?’ He answered, ‘You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbour as yourself.’ And he said to him, ‘You have given the right answer; do this, and you will live.’

But wanting to justify himself, he asked Jesus, ‘And who is my neighbour?’ Jesus replied, ‘A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell into the hands of robbers, who stripped him, beat him, and went away, leaving him half dead. Now by chance a priest was going down that road; and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan while travelling came near him; and when he saw him, he was moved with pity. He went to him and bandaged his wounds, having poured oil and wine on them. Then he put him on his own animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him. The next day he took out two denarii, gave them to the innkeeper, and said, “Take care of him; and when I come back, I will repay you whatever more you spend.” Which of these three, do you think, was a neighbour to the man who fell into the hands of the robbers?’ He said, ‘The one who showed him mercy.’ Jesus said to him, ‘Go and do likewise.’
