St Andrew's 2018 accounts - an update

This week we have received the draft accounts from the Diocesan Finance Department. As a result of holidays and pre-existing commitments, the PCC will meet to approve the accounts after church on Sunday 4th August. Once this has been done, we will be able to make them available to everyone from Sunday 11th August. There will be a short Extraordinary Church Meeting after the service on Sunday 25th August for the receipt of the accounts.

Julie

Summer Fair – A huge thank you for all the work you put into the Summer fair, I think you will all agree it was a fantastic event – great Photo's on our Facebook Page. The amount raised is approximately £2,400.

Tea and Scones Will be served in the Parish Rooms each Sunday until September from 2.30 pm – 4.30 pm. If you are able to help by hosting an afternoon, baking scones or church sitting so that our ancient church can be open for visitors, please sign the list at the back of the church.

Jigsaw Christmas Bags – Toothbrushes, toothpaste, combs, hairbrushes, soap, small toys, crayons are needed to fill these bags which will be given to the children at Christmas. Items are required by the end of July so they can be despatched to Tim Lee in August.

KnottheKnot Stitching Group – Will not be meeting again until September due to holidays.

St Andrew's Church Building Working Group - as you know, this group has been set up to consider how to secure a sustainable future for the church building and is being co-ordinated by Sue Booth, the diocesan Buildings for Mission officer. A number of you are already involved - many thanks. In order to accommodate Sue's diary and other commitments, regular meetings over the summer have been arranged. If you would like to get involved with this group and attend any of these meetings, please let Julie know in the first instance. Meetings will be on Thursdays at 1.30pm in the parish rooms on the following dates: 11th and 25th July, 8th and 22nd August, 5th and 19th September. Sue will be visiting us to give us an update at our service on Sunday 4th August. The meeting on 8th August will be a visit to Bolton Priory at 2pm, when the Rector, the Revd. Nicholas Mercer, will show us round their redevelopment works - there'll be more about this in the July/August edition of 'The Pinnacle'.

First Reading – Colossians 1. 15-28

He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation; for in him all things in heaven and on earth were created, things visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or powers—all things have been created through him and for him. He himself is before all things, and in him all things hold together. He is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, so that he might come to have first place in everything. For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, and through him God was pleased to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, by making peace through the blood of his cross.

And you who were once estranged and hostile in mind, doing evil deeds, he has now reconciled in his fleshly body through death, so as to present you holy and blameless and irreproachable before him— provided that you continue securely established and steadfast in the faith, without shifting from the hope promised by the gospel that you heard, which has been proclaimed to every creature under heaven. I, Paul, became a servant of this gospel.

Paul's Interest in the Colossians

I am now rejoicing in my sufferings for your sake, and in my flesh I am completing what is lacking in Christ's afflictions for the sake of his body, that is, the church. I became its servant according to God's commission that was given to me for you, to make the word of God fully known, the mystery that has been hidden throughout the ages and generations but has now been revealed to his saints. To them God chose to make known how great among the Gentiles are the riches of the glory of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory. It is he whom we proclaim, warning everyone and teaching everyone in all wisdom, so that we may present everyone mature in Christ.

Gospel Reading – Luke 10. 38-end

Jesus Visits Martha and Mary

Now as they went on their way, he entered a certain village, where a woman named Martha welcomed him into her home. She had a sister named Mary, who sat at the Lord's feet and listened to what he was saying. But Martha was distracted by her many tasks; so she came to him and asked, 'Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me to do all the work by myself? Tell her then to help me.' But the Lord answered her, 'Martha, Martha, you are worried and distracted by many things; there is need of only one thing. Mary has chosen the better part, which will not be taken away from her.'

We are not called by God to do extraordinary things but to do ordinary Things with extraordinary love.
