We are very short of hairbrushes and combs , in fact I only have 11 of each , so if anyone could donate one or two that would be brilliant . Otherwise I will buy some more .

The bags will be packed by the ladies group on the 29th of this month which just leaves us a couple of Sundays really to ask for items to be left in church or perhaps given to Lesley, Christine or Sandie.

Chuffs have purchased all the bags , ladies group financed all the items for the pencil cases , which I made , and we all knitted the teddies etc . Lesley has knitted 12 jelly babies !

I am thrilled with all I have 53 bags is pretty impressive .
Thank you to everyone

St Andrew's Church Building Working Group - as you know, this group has been set up to consider how to secure a sustainable future for the church building and is being co-ordinated by Sue Booth, the diocesan Buildings for Mission officer. A number of you are already involved - many thanks. In order to accommodate Sue's diary and other commitments, regular meetings over the summer have been arranged. If you would like to get involved with this group and attend any of these meetings, please let Julie know in the first instance. Meetings will be on Thursdays at 1.30pm in the parish rooms on the following dates: 8th and 22nd August, 5th and 19th September. Sue will be visiting us to give us an update at our service on Sunday 4th August. The meeting on 8th August will be a visit to Bolton Priory at 2pm, when the Rector, the Revd. Nicholas Mercer, will show us round their redevelopment works - there'll be more about this in the July/August edition of 'The Pinnacle'.

First Reading – Colossians 3. 1-11

The New Life in Christ

So if you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth, for you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ who is your life is revealed, then you also will be revealed with him in glory.

Put to death, therefore, whatever in you is earthly: fornication, impurity, passion, evil desire, and greed (which is idolatry). On account of these the wrath of God is coming on those who are disobedient. These are the ways you also once followed, when you were living that life. But now you must get rid of all such things—anger, wrath, malice, slander, and abusive language from your mouth. Do not lie to one another, seeing that you have stripped off the old self with its practices and have clothed yourselves with the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge according to the image of its creator. In that renewal there is no longer Greek and Jew, circumcised and uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave and free; but Christ is all and in all!

Gospel Reading – Luke 12. 13-21

The Parable of the Rich Fool

Someone in the crowd said to him, ‘Teacher, tell my brother to divide the family inheritance with me.’ But he said to him, ‘Friend, who set me to be a judge or arbitrator over you?’ And he said to them, ‘Take care! Be on your guard against all kinds of greed; for one’s life does not consist in the abundance of possessions.’ Then he told them a parable: ‘The land of a rich man produced abundantly. And he thought to himself, “What should I do, for I have no place to store my crops?” Then he said, “I will do this: I will pull down my barns and build larger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods. And I will say to my soul, Soul, you have ample goods laid up for many years; relax, eat, drink, be merry.” But God said to him, “You fool! This very night your life is being demanded of you. And the things you have prepared, whose will they be?” So it is with those who store up treasures for themselves but are not rich towards God.’

Quote by Martin Luther King Jr.

“If you can’t fly, then run, If you can’t run, then walk, If you can’t walk, then crawl, but whatever you do, you have to keep moving forward.”
