Tea and Scones Will be served in the Parish Rooms each Sunday until September from 2.30 pm – 4.30 pm. If you are able to help by hosting an afternoon, baking scones or church sitting so that our ancient church can be open for visitors, please sign the list at the back of the church.

Third Sunday of the Month – Beginning on the 15th September there will be a “Lay Led” Service at St. Andrew’s. Refreshments will be served prior to the service at 10.30 a.m. followed by a short service at 11.00 a.m.

St Andrew's Church Building Working Group - *as you know, this group has been set up to consider how to secure a sustainable future for the church building and is being co-ordinated by Sue Booth, the diocesan Buildings for Mission officer. A number of you are already involved - many thanks. In order to accommodate Sue's diary and other commitments, regular meetings over the summer have been arranged. If you would like to get involved with this group and attend any of these meetings, please let Julie know in the first instance. Meetings will be on Thursdays at 1.30pm in the parish rooms on the following dates: 5th and 19th September.

Church and churchyard tidy up

It is time that we had a tidy up and cleaning inside and outside our church. The dates are Thursday 12th to Saturday 15th September from 10am to 12.30pm. There will be a list in church to sign when you can help. If there is anyone who would like to help but doesn't feel up to cleaning and gardening, assistance with refreshments for the workers would be very welcome!

Most of the cleaning equipment is provided for inside the church but feel free to bring some dusters. If you are going to work in the gardens, please bring some gardening tools. The more people who come the quicker it will be finished and our beautiful church will look pristine for the Heritage weekends!! Further details from

First Reading – Hebrews 13. 1-8, 15,16

Service Well-Pleasing to God

Let mutual love continue. Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for by doing that some have entertained angels without knowing it. Remember those who are in prison, as though you were in prison with them; those who are being tortured, as though you yourselves were being tortured. Let marriage be held in honour by all, and let the marriage bed be kept undefiled; for God will judge fornicators and adulterers. Keep your lives free from the love of money, and be content with what you have; for he has said, 'I will never leave you or forsake you.' So we can say with confidence, 'The Lord is my helper;

I will not be afraid.

What can anyone do to me?'

Remember your leaders, those who spoke the word of God to you; consider the outcome of their way of life, and imitate their faith. Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and for ever. Through him, then, let us continually offer a sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the fruit of lips that confess his name. Do not neglect to do good and to share what you have, for such sacrifices are pleasing to God

Gospel Reading – Luke 14. 1,7-14

Jesus Heals the Man with Dropsy

On one occasion when Jesus was going to the house of a leader of the Pharisees to eat a meal on the sabbath, they were watching him closely.

Humility and Hospitality

When he noticed how the guests chose the places of honour, he told them a parable. 'When you are invited by someone to a wedding banquet, do not sit down at the place of honour, in case someone more distinguished than you has been invited by your host; and the host who invited both of you may come and say to you, "Give this person your place", and then in disgrace you would start to take the lowest place. But when you are invited, go and sit down at the lowest place, so that when your host comes, he may say to you, "Friend, move up higher"; then you will be honoured in the presence of all who sit at the table with you. For all who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted.'

He said also to the one who had invited him, 'When you give a luncheon or a dinner, do not invite your friends or your brothers or your relatives or rich neighbours, in case they may invite you in return, and you would be repaid. But when you give a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind. And you will be blessed, because they cannot repay you, for you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous
