BEAF Meeting

We would like to invite members of your congregations to the next BEAF meeting which will be taking place on Wednesday 27th November at 7.30pm, with refreshments from 7pm. The venue is the newly refurbished All Saints Church in Ilkley and if anyone would like a brief guided tour before the meeting then please come for 6:45 and let me know so that we can arrange enough tour guides.

The main theme for the evening will be looking at how to create a culture of invitation and we will have examples of how some churches do this. We will also explore ways to do this well. If you have had some positive experiences of doing this we would love to hear about them.

Parking in Ilkley is slightly limited, but there is free parking on the road (after 6pm) It would be helpful to know if you plan to attend so that we can cater accordingly. As always, the invitation to attend is open to all so please do let people know about it!

CDFC Events:

ADVANCE NOTICE - 'CDFC Rewind to Christmas' Thursday 5th December 2019

CDFC will be running its annual 'Rewind to Christmas' session this year, for Yr 4 children from local schools to come and learn more about the Christmas story. For the first time this year, Glusburn Primary School will be participating, and so given the numbers we will be running 2 sessions; one in the morning and one in the afternoon.

We are looking for volunteers to come and help with either or both session(s). Lunch will be provided! The schools really value these sessions, and they're good fun. If you can help, please put the date in your diary, and let Julie know. Many thanks.

Events at Farnhill Institute in November.

Perusing Peru, Friday 8/11/2019, 7.15pm, admission £7

Paul Haywood will give an illustrated talk on his recent travels in Peru. Admission includes refreshments. A donations bar will be available.

"WW1 - 101" exhibition, Saturday 9/11/2019, 10.00am - 12.00 (upstairs)

If you didn't get a chance to see the WW1 "From Farnhill to the Front" exhibition last year (or if you'd like to have another look), a selection of the display boards and a slideshow will be on display, upstairs in the Institute, to commemorate 101 years since the end of WW1. Free admission.

"Follow the Fleece", Friday 22/11/2019, 7.30pm, admission £7.50

A musical show telling the history of the wool trade in Airedale. This is a revival of a show first staged about 10 years ago to popular local acclaim. It features a cast of more than 20 - chorus and narrator - and will be the largest show staged at the Institute for many years. Advance tickets are available by email from KandFIInstitute@gmail.com Admission includes refreshments.

Readings:

Ephesians 1.11-end

In Christ we have also obtained an inheritance, having been destined according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to his counsel and will, so that we, who were the first to set our hope on Christ, might live for the praise of his glory. In him you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and had believed in him, were marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit; this is the pledge of our inheritance towards redemption as God's own people, to the praise of his glory.

Paul's Prayer

I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love towards all the saints, and for this reason I do not cease to give thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers. I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation as you come to know him, so that, with the eyes of your heart enlightened, you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance among the saints, and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power for us who believe, according to the working of his great power. God put this power to work in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the age to come. And he has put all things under his feet and has made him the head over all things for the church, which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

Gospel Reading - Luke 6.20-31

Then he looked up at his disciples and said:

‘Blessed are you who are poor,
for yours is the kingdom of God.

‘Blessed are you who are hungry now,
for you will be filled.

‘Blessed are you who weep now,
for you will laugh.

‘Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude you, revile you, and defame you on account of the Son of Man. Rejoice on that day and leap for joy, for surely your reward is great in heaven; for that is what their ancestors did to the prophets.

‘But woe to you who are rich,
for you have received your consolation.

‘Woe to you who are full now,
for you will be hungry.

‘Woe to you who are laughing now,
for you will mourn and weep.

‘Woe to you when all speak well of you, for that is what their ancestors did to the false prophets.

Love for Enemies

‘But I say to you that listen, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you. If anyone strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also; and from anyone who takes away your coat do not withhold even your shirt. Give to everyone who begs from you; and if anyone takes away your goods, do not ask for them again. Do to others as you would have them do to you
