BEAF Meeting

We would like to invite members of your congregations to the next BEAF meeting which will be taking place on Wednesday 27th November at 7.30pm, with refreshments from 7pm. The venue is the newly refurbished All Saints Church in Ilkley and if anyone would like a brief guided tour before the meeting then please come for 6:45 and let me know so that we can arrange enough tour guides.

The main theme for the evening will be looking at how to create a culture of invitation and we will have examples of how some churches do this. We will also explore ways to do this well. If you have had some positive experiences of doing this we would love to hear about them.

Parking in Ilkley is slightly limited, but there is free parking on the road (after 6pm) It would be helpful to know if you plan to attend so that we can cater accordingly. As always, the invitation to attend is open to all so please do let people know about it!

CDFC Events:

ADVANCE NOTICE - 'CDFC Rewind to Christmas' Thursday 5th December 2019

CDFC will be running its annual 'Rewind to Christmas' session this year, for Yr. 4 children from local schools to come and learn more about the Christmas story. For the first time this year, Glusburn Primary School will be participating, and so given the numbers we will be running 2 sessions; one in the morning and one in the afternoon.

We are looking for volunteers to come and help with either or both session(s). Lunch will be provided! The schools really value these sessions, and they're good fun. If you can help, please put the date in your diary, and let Julie know. Many thanks.

Events at Farnhill Institute in November.

"Follow the Fleece", Friday 22/11/2019, 7.30pm, admission £7.50

A musical show telling the history of the wool trade in Airedale. This is a revival of a show first staged about 10 years ago to popular local acclaim. It features a cast of more than 20 - chorus and narrator - and will be the largest show staged at the Institute for many years. Advance tickets are available by email from KandFIstitute@gmail.com Admission includes refreshments.

Readings:

Thessalonians 2.1-5, 13-end

The Man of Lawlessness

As to the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our being gathered together to him, we beg you, brothers and sisters, not to be quickly shaken in mind or alarmed, either by spirit or by word or by letter, as though from us, to the effect that the day of the Lord is already here. Let no one deceive you in any way; for that day will not come unless the rebellion comes first and the lawless one is revealed, the one destined for destruction. He opposes and exalts himself above every so-called god or object of worship, so that he takes his seat in the temple of God, declaring himself to be God. Do you not remember that I told you these things when I was still with you?

Chosen for Salvation

But we must always give thanks to God for you, brothers and sisters beloved by the Lord, because God chose you as the first fruits for salvation through sanctification by the Spirit and through belief in the truth. For this purpose he called you through our proclamation of the good news, so that you may obtain the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. So then, brothers and sisters, stand firm and hold fast to the traditions that you were taught by us, either by word of mouth or by our letter.

Now may our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who loved us and through grace gave us eternal comfort and good hope, comfort your hearts and strengthen them in every good work and word.

Gospel Reading – Luke 20. 27-38

The Question about the Resurrection

Some Sadducees, those who say there is no resurrection, came to him and asked him a question, 'Teacher, Moses wrote for us that if a man's brother dies, leaving a wife but no children, the man shall marry the widow and raise up children for his brother. Now there were seven brothers; the first married, and died childless; then the second and the third married her, and so in the same way all seven died childless. Finally the woman also died. In the resurrection, therefore, whose wife will the woman be? For the seven had married her.'

Jesus said to them, 'Those who belong to this age marry and are given in marriage; but those who are considered worthy of a place in that age and in the resurrection from the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage. Indeed they cannot die any more, because they are like angels and are children of God, being children of the resurrection. And the fact that the dead are raised Moses himself showed, in the story about the bush, where he speaks of the Lord as the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Now he is God not of the dead, but of the living; for to him all of them are alive.'
