Weekly notice sheet for the week beginning Sunday 24th November 2019

Christ the King

A very warm welcome to our worship today. Do please introduce yourself!
 A hearing aid loop is fitted at St Andrew's, St Mary's & St. John's.
 All are welcome to come forward to receive Communion or a blessing.
 Communion can be administered to someone in their seat – please ask.
 May God bless us as we gather together as God's people.

BEAF Meeting

We would like to invite members of your congregations to the next BEAF meeting which will be taking place on Wednesday 27th November at 7.30pm, with refreshments from 7pm. The venue is the newly refurbished All Saints Church in Ilkley and if anyone would like a brief guided tour before the meeting then please come for 6:45 and let me know so that we can arrange enough tour guides.

The main theme for the evening will be looking at how to create a culture of invitation and we will have examples of how some churches do this. We will also explore ways to do this well. If you have had some positive experiences of doing this we would love to hear about them.

Parking in Ilkley is slightly limited, but there is free parking on the road (after 6pm) It would be helpful to know if you plan to attend so that we can cater accordingly. As always, the invitation to attend is open to all so please do let people know about it!

CDFC Events:

ADVANCE NOTICE - 'CDFC Rewind to Christmas' Thursday 5th December 2019

CDFC will be running its annual 'Rewind to Christmas' session this year, for Yr. 4 children from local schools to come and learn more about the Christmas story. For the first time this year, Glusburn Primary School will be participating, and so given the numbers we will be running 2 sessions; one in the morning and one in the afternoon.

We are looking for volunteers to come and help with either or both session(s). Lunch will be provided! The schools really value these sessions, and they're good fun. If you can help, please put the date in your diary, and let Julie know. Many thanks.

Reading:

Luke 23. 33-43

When they came to the place that is called The Skull, they crucified Jesus there with the criminals, one on his right and one on his left. [[Then Jesus said, 'Father, forgive them; for they do not know what they are doing.']] And they cast lots to divide his clothing. And the people stood by, watching; but the leaders scoffed at him, saying, 'He saved others; let him save himself if he is the Messiah of God, his chosen one!' The soldiers also mocked him, coming up and offering him sour wine, and saying, 'If you are the King of the Jews, save yourself!' There was also an inscription over him, 'This is the King of the Jews.'

One of the criminals who were hanged there kept deriding him and saying, 'Are you not the Messiah? Save yourself and us!' But the other rebuked him, saying, 'Do you not fear God, since you are under the same sentence of condemnation? And we indeed have been condemned justly, for we are getting what we deserve for our deeds, but this man has done nothing wrong.' Then he said, 'Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom.' He replied, 'Truly I tell you, today you will be with me in Paradise.'

Quote of the week

"At this Christmas when Christ comes, will He find a warm heart? Mark the season of Advent by loving and serving the others with God's own love and concern."
