Could YOU be a Waterways Chaplain? Would you like to find out more?

VENUE: Christ Church, 18-28 Cross Street, Skipton. BD23 2NF

Arrive from 9:30 for coffee. Bring your own lunch. Drinks provided

Come and find out Tuesday 28th January 2020 @ 9:30am - free

Please feel free to come and find out whether being a volunteer chaplain is for you. You will find out what we stand for, who we help and how we aim to come alongside people in God's love on the towpath. You don't have to be a boater, be ordained - just a desire to share God's love to those you meet. Would you like to be part of a team? There is no obligation to join if you attend. Please let us know if you are coming, as the event will only be held if we know you are coming! Find out more through our website: www.waterwayschaplaincy.org.uk

1. The next meeting of our local Deanery Synod (South Craven and Wharfedale) will be held at Holy Trinity, Cowling on Tuesday 18th February, beginning at 7.30pm. Refreshments will be available from 7.00pm. The main business will be an address from Bishop of Bradford, Bishop Toby Howarth, and that will be followed by a Question and Answer session. It's an open meeting and everyone is very welcome - why don't you take the opportunity to see how a Synod works? Chris or Shirley will tell you more!

2. We welcome our new Churchwarden, Joan McCartney, with grateful thanks to her for taking on a new responsibility. We'd like to demonstrate our grateful thanks to Lesley Hudson and Sandie Walton, who have been such stalwarts in the role for so many years. We plan an official "thank you" to them after the service on Sunday, 23rd February. If you would like to contribute towards a gift, then please see Jill Wright as soon as possible.

Reading – Isaiah 9. 1-4

But there will be no gloom for those who were in anguish. In the former time he brought into contempt the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, but in the latter time he will make glorious the way of the sea, the land beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the nations.

The people who walked in darkness

have seen a great light;

those who lived in a land of deep darkness—

on them light has shined.

You have multiplied the nation,

you have increased its joy;

they rejoice before you

as with joy at the harvest,

as people exult when dividing plunder.

For the yoke of their burden,

and the bar across their shoulders,

the rod of their oppressor,

you have broken as on the day of Midian.

Gospel Reading – Matthew 4. 12-23

Now when Jesus heard that John had been arrested, he withdrew to Galilee. He left Nazareth and made his home in Capernaum by the lake, in the territory of Zebulun and Naphtali, so that what had been spoken through the prophet Isaiah might be fulfilled:

‘Land of Zebulun, land of Naphtali,

on the road by the sea, across the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles—
the people who sat in darkness

have seen a great light,

and for those who sat in the region and shadow of death

light has dawned.’

From that time Jesus began to proclaim, ‘Repent, for the kingdom of heaven has come near.’

As he walked by the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the lake—for they were fishermen. And he said to them, ‘Follow me, and I will make you fish for people.’ Immediately they left their nets and followed him. As he went from there, he saw two other brothers, James son of Zebedee and his brother John, in the boat with their father Zebedee, mending their nets, and he called them. Immediately they left the boat and their father, and followed him.

Jesus went throughout Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom and curing every disease and every sickness among the people
